THE strength of Judge M. C. Saufley, of this place, was shown to some extent in the meeting of the appellate committee at Frankfort Tuesday, but a far better example of it will be exhibited at the convention to be held at Lexington Aug. 4th. The judge really preferred a primary, but for the expense of that method of nominating a candidate, and was satisfied with a convention, and the naming of Lexington as the place for it and Aug. 4 as the date, were just what he asked for. At the proper time Judge Saufley will take the stump and we predict that neither Mr. Carroll nor Judge Cantrill will meet him. They know the judge's ability as a speaker and as neither of the other gentlemen are masters of the art of oratory, they will find business in the other end of the district when Lincoln county's candidate bears them in their dens. Things look favorable for Judge Saufley, even after the gerrymandering of the district for the benefit of the other candidates, and here is hoping that he will win the nomination and later be elected to the position for which he is so eminently fitted.

THE legislature has shut up shop and the members have gone home to receive the plaudits of their constituents, in the main very highly deserved. Among the things most creditable to the body was the passage of appropriations for a new state capitol, for the St. Louis exposition and for the Confederate Home, the passage of the school book bill and a bill extending the length of the school term from five to six months. The excellency of these enactments greatly outweigh the small amount of vicious legislation and entitles the body to the commendation of the State, that they evidently tried to serve to the best of their ability.

THE Apple Consumers' League professes to have solved the problem of curing bad habits. It prescribes that when you are tempted to chew or smoke tobacco, to drink or swear, to eat an apple and the temptation will depart. The whole country will have to be set in apple trees to meet the demand if the fad becomes popular.

NOMINATION BY CONVENTION.

Saufley and Carroll Delegates Defeat Cantrill's Desire for Primary.

Through a combination between the advocates of Judge M. C. Saufley, of this county, and Hon. John D. Carroll, of Henry, the democratic committee of the Fifth appellate district in session at Frankfort Tuesday, defeated the efforts of Judge James E. Cantrill, the third candidate, to hold a primary election to nominate the successor of Judge A. R. Burnam, and instead called a delegate convention to be held at Lexington on August 4 next to select the nominee. The official call for the convention reads:

"At a meeting of the democratic executive committee of the Fifth appellate district of Kentucky, held pursuant to a call of the chairman, W. A. Lee, at Frankfort, on Tuesday, the 15th day of March, 1904, the purpose of determining the time and manner of selecting a democratic nominee for judge of the court of appeals of Kentucky for the Fifth district of Kentucky, to be voted for at the regular November election, 1904, the following resolutions were adopted:

First—That a delegate convention be held in the city of Lexington, on the 4th day of August, 1904, at 1 P. M. for the purpose of nominating a democratic candidate for judge of the court of appeals of Kentucky in the Fifth appellate district to be voted for at the regular November election, 1904.

Second—That in said delegate convention the various counties composing the district shall be entitled to one delegate vote for each 200 votes or fractional part thereof over 100 votes cast for William Jennings Bryan in 1900 and the said delegate vote is as follows, to-wit: Bourbon, 12; Boyle, 8; Carroll, 9; Fayette, 21; Franklin, 15; Gallatin, 5; Garrard, 7; Henry, 12; Jackson, 1; Jessamine, 8; Lincoln, 9; Madison, 15; Mercer, 9; Owen, 17; Rockcastle, 5; Scott, 13; Trimble, 7, and Woodford, 9.

Third—That a mass meeting be held at the county seat in each county in the district at 1 o'clock P. M., standard time, on the 2nd day of August, 1904, for the purpose of selecting delegates to said convention. In Fayette county separate meetings shall be held by each legislative district, and the chairman of each district in said county shall give notice by publication in at least three issues of each daily democratic paper published in said county the week preceding said mass meetings will be held, the number of delegates each of said districts is entitled to, shall be determined by the chairman thereof, and as hereinbefore stated shall be based on the vote for Bryan in 1900, but the entire county of Fayette shall only be entitled to 21 delegate votes. The mass meetings shall be called to order by the chairman of the respective county said legislative districts, and shall be presided over by him until meeting is organized by the election of a permanent chairman and secretary.

Fourth—It shall be the duty of the democrats assembled at each of said mass meetings to select the number of delegates to which their county or legislative district is entitled and the names of such delegates shall be certified to the delegate convention by the permanent chairman and secretary of said mass meetings and the accredited delegates of their respective counties or legislative districts.

Fifth—It shall be the duty of the respective chairmen of the various county and legislative districts to certify to the said delegate convention, the names of persons selected at each of said mass meetings as chairman and secretary.

Sixth—That the delegates who attend the district convention cast the entire vote of their county or legislative districts, and that no proxy be voted from any county or legislative district in said district convention.

Seventh—That at the mass meetings herein provided for, all democrats in the district are invited and requested to participate.

Eighth—That the said delegate convention shall be presided over by the chairman, W. A. Lee, until the convention is organized by the election of a temporary chairman and secretary.

Ninth—That the candidate who receives a majority of the delegate votes at said convention be declared the democratic nominee for judge of the court of appeals of Kentucky in the Fifth district of Kentucky, to be voted for at the regular November election, 1904, and that his name shall be certified to the proper officers as required by the law by the chairman and secretary of said convention.
